ABOUT JARED

I was drawn into the film making process about 5 years ago as I watched other artists create work I found inspiring. The possibility of owning my own business brought me excitement and I ventured in, learning everything I could about the craft. I shoot weddings because I enjoy being a part of capturing the moments in peoples lives they want to remember. Each of my films are built with the goal of creating emotional connection and I work purposefully to ensure that.

I am blessed to have a beautiful family. The loves of my life are my wife Ashley and our two beautiful children. We live in Salt Lake City, Utah but I am available to travel worldwide.
